COYOTE COMES TO CITY
FRESNO, Cal. (U.P.)—Fresno is not exactly a backwoods village, carved from the heart of the wilderness, and yet no one would be surprised much if a herd of buffalo ambled into town. Because, the other day, a coyote was captured just a few blocks from the heart of the city's business district.

Safety In First Quarter Is Only Score For Bell

Torrance Tartars Show Up Well in Opening Marine League Game

Low scores in the opening games in the Marine League played last Friday, portend a pretty race for the championship that has been unequalled for a number of years, and will add much to the interest in the coming games.

Torrance showed up well in their tilt with Bell. In the opening quarter, Bell started a drive for the goal that ended on the Tartars' one-yard line where they were held for downs.

With their backs to the goal posts, the Tartars dug in their spikes and held like the well-known stone wall against the repeated plunges of the Bell warriors, whose only score came at this crucial moment when Atchison, in punting out of danger, stepped back over his end-zone line, and the score-keeper chalked up a safety for Bell.

Jimmy McLean, who has been ailing for a couple of weeks with a threatened attack of appendicitis, started at quarter for the Tartars, later replaced by Guy Rowell and Adam Adamoli. Both teams depended on straight football for their gains, with little passing. Smith replaced Herman Hamman, injured last week in a practice game, at left tackle and held down the position well.

Torrance is using the Notre Dame style of play this year with apparently good effect. Prospects for some victories are fairly bright, as the team is now working as a unit and showing good knowledge of the game.

The line-up for last Friday was as follows:

Torrance	LER	Bell	Fertig
Harris	LTR	Smith	Fitch
Atchison	LGR	Atchison	Wells
Everett	C	Everett	Farren
Briganti	RGL	Briganti	Campbell
Quayle	RTL	Quayle	Carroll
Paxman	REL	Paxman	Davis
McLean	Q	McLean	Heinrich
Figueredo	LHR	Figueredo	Roeder
Rogers	RHL	Rogers	Rohm
Atchevich	P	Atchevich	Ryan

Substitutes for Torrance: Rowell, Adamoli at quarter.

Long Runs By Narbonne Backs Spill Leuzinger

Gauchos Trample Hopes of Hawthorne Eleven In Friday's Opener

When Tartar meets Gauchos on the Torrance field tomorrow, watch Watanabe. This little 125-pound skeyter back goes places when he gets the ball, and if he breaks free, there's a touchdown almost sure to follow. Watanabe scored the first count for the Gauchos against Leuzinger last Friday, and was matched by Gould's other Narbonne score. Williams, fullback, converted, making the count 13-0 against the strong Leuzinger eleven.

Couch Ben Comrada ran in almost a full substitute team in the last few minutes of play against Leuzinger after the regulars had put the game away. Alman, Carpenter, at ends; Schmidt and McEwen, tackles; Rider and Nietupski, guards; Meltz, center; Watanabe and Gould, halfbacks; Williams, fullback, and Shepard at quarter, started the game, and most of them gave way to Tidmarsh, Cheek and Gannon in the backfield, and Shekels, Holman, Tawa, Welch, Riess and Eyster, in the line.

Narbonne's scores were made when Watanabe broke away for a 35-yard run and Gould returned a punt for about the same distance. When the two local schools meet here tomorrow, approximately the same line-up will be used against Torrance. Comrada may start Shekels, a 230-pound heavyweight, in the line, and as he is a steady consistent player, the Tartars may have some difficulty in pushing him around very much.

The Torrance game will start at 3 o'clock sharp, with both teams keyed up for the settlement of the annual question as to which has the better outfit. Torrance has been the under dog for several seasons, but their changed appearance and attitude this year may give the Gauchos a setback.

HAMMAN RECOVERING FROM RECENT INJURY
Herman Hamman, Tartar captain and left tackle, who was seriously injured on Tuesday of last week in a practice game against a Redondo Beach football team, is recovering, according to reports from the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital where the boy was taken a few hours after his injury. Hamman's condition for a few days was considered quite serious, but he is now improving slowly.

Big Pines Camp Zoo Closed: Too Costly

Los Angeles county will be minus a zoo and taxpayers will be saved $10,000 annually as a result of action taken this week by the board of supervisors in ordering the disposal of the Big Pines camp zoo.

Including food for buffalo, elk, reindeer, bob cats, bears and mountain lions, the collection cost the county $10,000 per year, but its total market value is only $75. California Zoological Gardens will receive the entire group of animals with the exception of six buffalo which will probably go to the Catalina Island zoo.

Motorbike Races at Long Beach Track

Motorcycle races at the Long Beach Moto Speedway, each Tuesday night, are providing thrills for big crowds each week. Several spills last week kept the spectators in a continuous state of heart failure, but no one was seriously injured.

More than 1000 fans have seen the bike races since the opening of the speedway last month. A consolation for the three last places in the first four heats is a new feature at this track. The boys that eat the dust have at last been given a chance at some of the prize money.

Manhattan Holds Record As Most Popular Beach

Manhattan and Redondo beaches attracted 468,211 persons last month, as compared with 251,925 for the Santa Monica beaches, indicating that the southern beaches are the most popular in the county and state system, according to a report made to the board of supervisors today by the county department of recreation camps and playgrounds.

Throughout the county a total of 931,618 persons visited play areas during September. Manhattan state beach was by far the most popular individual beach, attracting 259,353 visitors during the month, the report stated.

Santa Monica canyon beach, another area under jurisdiction of the State, was the mecca for 155,160 during the month. Alamitos Bay in Long Beach was visited by 135,125 during September.
